SELF COSTS

The 80.- kr. daily cover all the self costs except food: firewood, lodging, electricity, gas, household items, internet. The DS has to order/bring his own food. The payment of the self costs must happen as follows: 25% will be payed in advance by online banking and latest 21 days before arrival of the DS. The resting 75% have to be payed by arrival - either by online banking or cash. If the DS wants to participate in the daily vegan breakfast he pays Nkr. 50.- per breakfast.

VISITORS

DS may welcome visiting family and/or friends after talking and scheduling this with Dreamvalley. Family and friends of the DSP pay the same prices daily in order to cover household items, firewood, gas and lodging. Visitors who want to stay longer than one weekend are expected to help with the daily works in Dreamvalley. If visitors want to stay longer and do not want to help the rules and prices of Dreamvalley Life will be calculated for the rest of their stay (have a look at www.dreamvalley.no)

TASKS OF THE DS:

DS' s tasks are dependent on individual agreements.

COMMITMENTS OF THE DSP:

- to treat tools and materials careful and responsible.
- to act friendly and active towards all visitors of Dreamvalley.
- to clean after yourself and to leave your room as clean as when you arrived.
- to treat the horses only according to the instructions you got.
- to take part in common activities with an active friendly and supporting manner.
- all DS' s should please inform Dreamvalley about any handicaps in order to consider if a stay in Dreamvalley will make sense. Life in Dreamvalley is very basic and includes a relatively primitive lifestyle with compost toilet, and a lot of outdoor time amidst wilderness. The personal comfort level is very simple. It is cold during wintertime.
- to consume electricity and firewood with care and only as much as necessary.
- to read and accept the 'common ground' rules developed by Findhorn (look at the attachment), to respect and use these rules for all communicative situations and challenges that concern the intern themes of the Dreamvalley community.

DREAMVALLEY' S COMMITMENT:

- to convey aspects concerning safety and security with horses and tools etc.
- to assist the DS with planning their travels to and from Dreamvalley.
- to take responsibility for the planning of the daily works and activities.
- to take part in household after a sensible sharing the work principle.
- to help with finding a doctor in case of sickness.
- to read and accept the 'common ground' rules developed by Findhorn (look at the attachment), to respect and use these rules for all communicative situations and challenges that concern the intern themes of the Dreamvalley community.

INSURANCE:

Dreamvalley Self participants have to organize their own insurance solutions before arrival. It is recommended to arrange for an accident insurance. Dreamvalley points at that handling of horses can involve high risks. The DS' s have to follow the safety instructions by Dreamvalley in any situation when handling horses or tools. Dreamvalley takes NO RESPONSIBILITY WHATSOEVER if something should happen to the DS' s, their animals, other people involved, or any kind of damage to things. If the DSP happens to damage something owned by Dreamvalley she/he is asked to replace or repair the item. If Dreamvalley uses an item of a visitor it is Dreamvalleys' responsibly if the item should happen to be damaged.

CANCELLATION TERMS:

This agreement can be cancelled by both parts by a formal written letter/mail. A cancellation before arrival has to happen at least 21 days before arrival. The booking fee - 25 % of the whole self cost fee will be kept at any case. If cancellation has been made 21 days before arrival only the 25 % will be retained by Dreamvalley. If the DS cancels her/his stay later than 21 days before or after arrival, she/he has to pay the self cost fee for the whole remaining period. If Dreamvalley cancels the stay Dreamvalley will pay back the daily fee minus the 25 % booking fees from the day of departure on.

PROLONGING OF AGREEMENT:

It is possible to prolong your stay by a spoken and then written agreement by both parts.
